Re: Department of Finance v. Parking Expert Inc. and Arye Wertzberger OATH Index No. 1142/20

Dear Mr. Wertzberger:

I received the Report and Recommendation (“R&R”) of Administrative Law Judge Ingrid Addison in the Office of Administrative Trials and Hearings (“OATH”) Case Index No. 1142/20, dated March 30, 2021 (attached). Judge Addison was designated to conduct a hearing on charges that you violated the City of New York Department of Finance’s (“DOF”) broker conduct rules while appearing before DOF’s Parking Violations Bureau (“PVB”). These charges were served upon you on December 6, 2019 and a hearing was held at OATH on February 22, 2021 and March 1, 2021, before Judge Addison.

I hereby fully adopt Judge Addison’s findings and the recommendations in her R&R. Effective immediately, you and your company, Parking Expert Inc., are suspended from appearing before the DOF’s Parking Violations Bureau in any capacity, except for parking violations issued in your name personally, for a period of three (3) years until April 26, 2024 pursuant to 19 RCNY § 39-09 (a)(9).

Should you wish to appeal my decision, you may file an Article 78 action in the New York Supreme Court.

Sincerely,

Sherif Soliman
Commissioner of Finance
